

NEWBORN PHOTOSESSION GUIDE

HELLO MOM AND DAD!

Congratulations on this greatest adventure of your life! Your Newborn Baby will grow and change everyday, however the best time for newborn session is during first two or three weeks of their new little lives.

Newborn sessions are a wonderful way to create beautiful, timeless memories to share with your future child and great pieces of art to decorate your home with. In these first weeks your baby will sleep most of the times and thats why it's a perfect time to stop the time in pictures.

For Newborn photosessions I am using only natural light and come to your home so that you and your baby feel relaxed.

NEWBORN 300 CHF

- BM Photoart's prep & planing, time during the shoot & post production of the images
- 1,5 - 2h session at location of your choice (your home or any hotel/chalet)
- 20 high resolution images, fully edited with print release (you can print & share however you want!)
- 20 small resolution impages for website/ Facebook/ email upload
- every additional picture 20 CHF
- Facebook private album on my page

MAKE IT HAPPEN!

If you are expecting a baby in the next few months, it is never too early to contact us to discuss your newborn photo session. The best time to perform this session is during the first two weeks after birth and we can set pre session date based on your due day.

We will do our best to document this precious time of your life in a beautiful manner to keep these special moments alive forever.

THANK YOU!
